The Decree¹ that exempts national citizens of certain countries from presenting an entry visa was recently published with the aim of stimulating tourism and the business environment, i.e., whether on the one hand, when travelling for tourism or recreational purposes, or, on the other, when doing business prospecting, conducting scientific research, participating in meetings, conferences, workshops, general meetings, establishing contacts with companies and other related events.

In this regard, national citizens holding ordinary passports from the following countries are exempt from the entry visa, which grants multiple entries into Mozambique, for a period of stay of 30 (thirty) days, which can be extended for an equal period upon justification:

- Canada;
- Federal Republic of Germany;
- Japan;
- Kingdom of Belgium;
- Kingdom of Denmark;
- Kingdom of Norway;
- Kingdom of Saudi Arabia;
- Kingdom of Spain;
- Kingdom of Sweden;
- Kingdom of the Netherlands;
- Republic of Côte d'Ivoire;
- Republic of Finland;
- Republic of France;
- Republic of Ghana;
- Republic of Indonesia;
- Republic of Ireland;
- Republic of Italia;
- Republic of Korea;
- Republic of Senegal;
- Republic of Singapore;
